

An Account of Schedules of Customs, Tolls and Duties delivered to the Clerks of the Peace of Counties, Cities and Towns in Ireland 1818

Tolls, Dues and Customs, claimed by the Earl of Bantry June 28th 1818

Potatoes bought by land or water, and sold in the town, suburbs or quays	one sixteenth
Wheat, oatmeal or barley meal, so sold	one sixteenth
Each cow, steer, bull or heifer, bought in the town or suburbs	six pence
Each sheep, goat or grass lamb, so bought	one penny
Each pig, so bought	one penny
Each calf sold in the town or suburbs	one halfpenny
Each cow, bull or bullock hide	one penny
Each kip or horse skin, so sold	one halfpenny
Each stand of bread or fruit per week	two pence
Each firkin of butter, so sold	one halfpenny
Each stand of sour milk, per week	two pence
Each stand of sour milk, each fair	four pence
Each basket of fresh bread, per week	two pence
Each basket of fresh bread, each fair	two pence
Each butcher's stall, stand of fish, goods or wares of any description whatsoever, per week	two pence
Each butcher's stall, stand of fish, goods or wares of any description whatsoever, each fair	four pence
Each butcher's stall, stand of fish, goods or wares of any description whatsoever, Christmas Eve	two pence
Each covered stand each fair	six pence
Each buyer of flannels or bundle cloth, commonly called packers, for the freedom of each fair	two shillings and six pence
Flannels retail in the town or suburbs	one twentieth
Salt fish so sold, each parcel	one penny
Salt fish so sold, each fair	four pence

The above are the several articles which have always paid Customs since the grant from Charles Second to the Earl of Anglesey.

Bantry June 1818 Richard Clerke
Holder of the Tolls

Ref: <http://www.dippam.ac.uk/eppi/documents/9679>

Compiled by Frank O'Donovan